Relevant Quotes

“Just as the thirty-eight years prove the gravity of the disease, so the carrying of the bed and the walking prove the completeness of the cure.”
-C.K. Barrett

“Muslims and Jews give the God they worship beautiful and magnificent titles. However, we should remember that whenever God’s name is separated from Christ, it is nothing more than empty imagination.”
-John Calvin

“The Jews hear of the wonderful healing and of the formal breach of their code, and are only interested in the latter. They think they see what is important, but in religious matters there are none so blind as those who are always certain that they see (cf. 9:39-41).”
-D.A. Carson

“His authority on earth allows us to dare to go to all the nations. His authority in heaven gives us our only hope of success. And His presence with us leaves us no other choice.”
-John Stott

“I cannot conceive it possible for anyone truly to receive Christ as Savior and yet not to receive him as Lord. A man who is really saved by grace does not need to be told that he is under solemn obligations to serve Christ. The new life within him tells him that. Instead of regarding it as a burden, he gladly surrenders himself—body, soul, and spirit—to the Lord who has redeemed him, reckoning this to be his reasonable service.”
-C.H. Spurgeon
